

FROM CENTRAL AMERICA.

By an arrival at New York from Aspinwall, we have later news from Central America.

War between New Grenada and Ecuador seems to be inevitable. The Ecuadorian Congress has authorized the Government to declare war against President Mosquera of New Grenada. The latter is said to be at the head of 3,000, and General Flores, of Ecuador, at the head of 5,000 men. According to one report, hostilities had already commenced. In Central America the war appears to be at an end. General Parrios, on October 28, evacuated San Salvador, and with 1,500 men left for the Department of San Miguel. San Salvador was occupied by the troops of Guatemala, and a Provisional Government organized under the ex-President Duenas. Troops were sent in pursuit of Parrios. The United States mail steamer Salvador, while lying in the harbor of La Union, had been fired upon by a guardboat. On the complaint of Mr. Partridge, United States Minister at San Salvador, the new authorities admitted the impropriety of the Commandante of La Union, and removed him.

It was effected by splitting the paper on which the two denominations are printed, and pasting the tens on the back of the fifties. It was, of course, peremptorily refused.

On Saturday last the estate of the late Senator Douglas, at Cottage Grove, near Chicago, Ill., was sold to satisfy a mortgage. It consisted of sixty acres, and brought $83,160, or $803 less than the amount required to satisfy the mortgage. The average price was $1,386 an acre.

The State of Arkansas is said to be subject to the incursions of Confederate conscripting parties. This interferes with the efforts of the planters, and the amount of cotton gathered will be very small.
